

WORKSHOP

The „European Jazz and Pop Orchestra“ is a full symphony orchestra with a rhythm section that has been an integral part of youth orchestral work in Upper Austria since 1995. It takes place annually as an international workshop for one week.

In the EJPO workshop, the characteristics of film, jazz and popular music are discussed in registers, tutti and a wide variety of ensembles and bands. In addition there will also be a choir workshop.

You can expect an experienced team of international tutors from the genres of popular music and classical music as well as an orchestra of around 70 people made up of young musicians and music students from all over Europe.

The EJPO conductor is from Estonia. The course language is English.

You can find all the detailed information on this at www.poporchester.at
